

A Worldwide rtist Die Proofs

Over the past 25 years we have amassed a wonderful and eclectic selection of Die Proofs of the World, both 19th and 20th century. It's an area of Philately that we enjoy and hope you will too!

As we are always buying new material, we may have just what you are looking for, please ask!

Henry Gitner

The quality of these artist die proofs is unsurpassed. The range of topics is vast. These miniature works of art are truly the jewel of any collection. If you're searching for an exciting item to enhance your Topical or Country collection, or looking for a beautiful and scarce exhibition piece, these proofs will be of interest to you. You will be sure to enjoy them for years to come. At the end of each description, we've included the name of one or more popular topical areas .

Please turn the page for our full introduction to this fascinating area.

I ntroduction

Proofs are impressions printed directly from a die or a plate and are generally not valid for postage. They are trial printings of stamp designs before they go into production and have the same design as the finished stamp. Because die proofs are typically pulled from the actual engraving they tend to have sharper images and finer impressions than the issued stamps.

There are different types of proofs. Large die proofs are printed on large pieces of stock., A “sunken” die proof has the die impression in an embossed. Plate proofs are printed from finished plates.. Proofs are often in different colors from the issued stamp. Progressive proofs are impressions printed to check the work as the design is being engraved. They may have frames only or vignettes only. Some proofs are printed on India paper and then affixed to a thicker card stock.

There are also different reasons for producing or these proofs. They can be made as a way of checking the actual engraving of the die or the transfer to the plate and let engravers see how the work is going.

Printer’s Trial Color Die Proofs are printed in different colors than the issued stamp with a large embossed frame around it. The paper has 3 punch holes on the bottom (similar to the most Deluxe sheets) and the color number is written in pencil in the bottom right corner. The number of different colors varies. As these Printer’s Color Die Proofs are made by the printer for technical reasons, there are very limited quantities made, sepia being the rarest as only a few were made. .

Essays , on the other hand, are unadopted designs, or slightly altered versions of the final accepted design. Some were destroyed or kept in the archives of government or private printing offices. There are die essays, plate essays, photo essays (See our U.S. Photo Essay & U.S. Autographed Plate block list) and as well as unfinished or incomplete designs. They may show the evolution of the design leading to the approved design

American Bank Note Co. Index Copy Proofs -These appeared publicly through their archive sale in 1990. Previously, most of the earlier American Bank Note large Die Proofs available were printed directly on Proof card or on India paper then Die sunk. These Index Copy Proofs were printed on India paper or cards, then mounted flat on card stock and stamped “INDEX COPY” for their files. Only one of each is believed to exist.

Helio Vaurigard Stamp engravers in the 1940’s-1950’s. They used the fine art of heliogravure that uses a photo chemical procedure that etches the image on a plate to be printed. The proofs for these, which is represented here are all typographed.

Deluxe Sheets: There are also a few Deluxe Sheets included in this list. This is but a very small sampling of our enormous stock of Deluxe sheets so please ask about the availability of other Deluxe sheets not listed . Deluxe Sheets are ungummed sheets with the stamp printed in the center. They are generally in the issued colors. They are usually not signed and show a printed inscription at the bottom of the Proof.

Call, fax, or email today. We’ll be happy to answer your questions or send photocopies or email images of any die proofs that interest you. If you don’t see what you are looking for - ask us! Our stock is much larger than this list — we may have your item in stock even if it does not appear here!
